

INVITATION FOR SPONSORS AND EXHIBITORS

Dear colleagues and valued veterinary partners,

We proudly announce the 37th Annual SiSAVA Symposium on current small animal diseases. As usual, this is the perfect opportunity to meet colleagues, share thoughts and opinions, and come across new scientific facts in small animal medicine. With this year's symposium, we would like to take a step further in acknowledging the meaning of cooperation and building a better future together.

The symposium will traditionally take place in one of Slovenia's coastal pearls, Portorož, from April 16 to April 18 2026. As usual, the event will present itself in a 3-day extended form with two or even three lecture streams simultaneously. The main themes of this year's symposium are internal medicine, neurology, surgery, behavioral medicine, dentistry and dermatology. As a young and ambitious executive board team of the Slovenian small animal veterinary association, our primary goal is advancing the veterinary profession in Slovenia. Therefore, we aim to offer Slovenian vets and veterinary assistants the best lectures possible. We expect more than 350 delegates, over 30 exhibitors, and some world-renowned speakers such as Fergus Allerton, Thomas Flegel, Laurent Findji, Gonçalo da Graça Pereira, Kirsti J.M. Schildt, Ana Nemec and Ana Rejec Jenček. The majority of lectures will be held in English language. You can use the event to make new friends, meet new potential business partners, or even recruit new employees from this part of Europe.

Please find our sponsor and exhibition offer attached. It would be a great honour and pleasure to host you in Slovenia. Should you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. In the hope of meeting you in Portorož, we send you our best and kindest regards!
